

ALiberation Fur Free Shopping Program

Company/Store Name: Flairline Fashions Ltd/ Flaireline Fashions Group

I, the undersigned, with authority to do so, make the following commitment on behalf of Flairline Fashions Limited/ Flaireline Fashions Group that our stores nationwide/worldwide will become part of ALiberation Fur Free Shopping Program immediately/starting on (specific date) 1st March 2009

The ALiberation Fur Free Shopping Program states that:

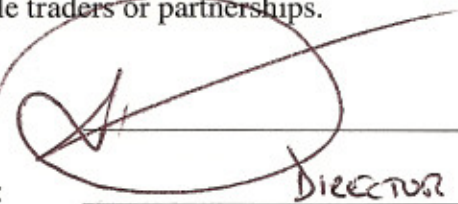

- The use of the term "Group" below will have the definition of "Flairline Fashions Limited/ Flaireline Fashions Group".
- With immediate effect/After (specific date) 1st March 2009, no animal fur will be sold or displayed in any of the stores contained within the Group.
- The concession partner outlets within our stores will not be permitted to sell animal fur products. Animal fur will not be sold or promoted through our website.
- Garments and other items made entirely of animal fur will not be sold/advertised/promoted/stored in/on our stores/website/concession partner outlets, nor will items containing animal fur trim or lining or parts.
- Animal fur includes rabbit fur and karakul lamb products.
- The Group and ALiberation are aware that even with a fur free policy that occasionally some products which contain animal fur may be bought/sold/advertised/promoted/stored in genuine error by the Group or by the Group's concessions partners or on the Group's website. The Group will commit immediately, on being notified of the sale/promotion/advertisement/storage of animal fur products by their stores/website/concession partners, to removing such animal fur items from sale/promotion/advertisement/storage by their stores/websites/concession partner outlets.
- The Group commits to this program for all time.
- All of the above conditions apply to our sister companies' stores or affiliated companies' stores. This includes stores that are sole traders or partnerships.
